CURRENT DIAGRAM
GEORGES BANK AND NANTUCKET SHOALS
Explanation
Hourly directions and velocities of tidal currents at thirteen stations are shown by arrows. The length of the arrow from the center of the circle represents the average velocity on a scale of one inch equals two knots. The figures at the arrow heads are the hours after the time of maximum flood at Pollock Rip Channel, the daily predicted times of which are given in the National Ocean Service Atlantic Coast Current Tables. The velocities plotted should be increased by 20 percent when the moon is full or new and decreased by 20 percent when the moon is in first or third quarters. For effect of wind on tidal currents, see Current Tables, Atlantic Coast.

Membership shall be granted with the approval of the CCIAOR Board of Directors.

V. Qualification and Election of Membership

A. Application

An application for membership shall be made in such manner and form as may be prescribed by the CCIAOR Board of Directors and made available to anyone requesting it. The application form shall contain a signed statement by which the applicant agrees as a condition to membership to thoroughly familiarize and abide by the Code of Ethics of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, the Constitutions, Bylaws, policies and Rules and Regulations of the CCIAOR, the State and National Associations, including the obligation to mediate and arbitrate controversies arising out of real estate transactions as specified by Article 17 of the Code of Ethics, and as further specified in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, as from time to time amended.

B. Qualifications

1. Qualifications

An applicant for REALTOR® Membership who is actively engaged in the real estate profession, and maintains a current, valid real estate broker's or salesperson's license in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or is licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property, has a place of business within the state or a state contiguous thereto (unless a secondary member), has no record of official sanctions involving unprofessional conduct*, agrees to complete a course of instruction covering the Bylaws, policy and Rules and Regulations of the CCIAOR , the Bylaws of the State Association, and the Constitution Bylaws and Code of Ethics of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, and shall agree that if elected to membership, he/she will abide by such Constitution, Bylaws, policies, Rules and Regulations, and Code of Ethics.

*No record of official sanctions involving unprofessional conduct is intended to mean that the CCIAOR may only consider:

(A.) Judgments against the applicant within the past seven (7) years of violations of (1) civil rights laws, (2) real estate license laws, or (3) other laws prohibiting unprofessional conduct rendered by the courts or other lawful authorities.

(B.) Criminal convictions within the past seven (7) years involving a crime that reasonably relates to the real estate business or puts clients, customers, or other real estate professionals at risk. The applicant must provide, and CCIAOR must consider mitigating factors relating to that criminal history.

CCIAOR is prohibited from knowingly granting REALTOR® Membership to any applicant who has an unfulfilled sanction pending which was imposed by another Board or Association of REALTORS® for violation of the Code of Ethics.

2. Determining Qualifications

The CCIAOR will also consider the following in determining an applicant's qualifications for REALTOR® Membership:

- All final findings of Code of Ethics violations and violations of other membership duties in this or any other REALTOR® association within the past three (3) years
- Pending ethics complaints (or hearings)
- Pending unsatisfied discipline pending
- Pending arbitration requests (or hearings)
- Unpaid arbitration awards or unpaid financial obligations to this or any other REALTOR® association or REALTOR® association MLS.
- Any misuse of the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® in the name of the applicant's brokerage.

"Provisional" membership may be granted in instances where ethics complaints or arbitration requests (or hearings) are pending in other associations or where the applicant for membership has unsatisfied discipline pending in another association (except for violations of the Code of Ethics; provided all other qualifications for membership have been satisfied). CCIAOR may reconsider the membership status of such individuals when all pending ethics and arbitration matters (and related discipline) have been resolved or if such matters are not resolved within six (6) months from the date that provisional membership is approved. If a member resigns from another association with an ethics complaint or arbitration request pending, the CCIADOR may condition membership on the applicant's certification that he/she will submit to the pending ethics or arbitration proceeding (in accordance with the established procedures of the CCIADOR to which the applicant has made application) and will abide by the decision of the hearing panel.

C. Election

1. Provisional Membership

The chief staff executive (or duly authorized designee) shall determine whether the applicant is applying for the appropriate class of membership. Applicants for REALTOR® Membership, who meet all qualifications established in these Bylaws, may be granted Provisional Membership upon submission of a completed application form and remittance of applicable CCIADOR dues and any application fee. Provisional Members shall be considered REALTORS® and shall be subject to all of the same privileges and obligations of membership. Provisional Members shall be considered Provisional until completion of the new member requirements as outlined in these Bylaws and in the CCIADOR Policy.

2. Pro-Rated Dues

Dues shall be computed from the date of application and shall be non-refundable.

3. Notice of Termination

The CCIADOR may not terminate any Membership without providing the Member with advance notice and the reason(s) for termination. Additionally, if requested, the Member shall have the opportunity to appear before the CCIADOR Board of Directors to make such statements as he/she deems relevant.

D. New Member Requirements

1. New Member Orientation

Provisional REALTOR® members shall complete an orientation program on the responsibilities and benefits of REALTOR® membership as defined in the Policy Manual. Failure to satisfy this requirement within 120 days of the date membership was granted will result in termination of provisional membership.

2. New Member Code of Ethics Training.

Provisional REALTOR® members shall complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time. This requirement does not apply to provisional members who have completed comparable orientation in another association, provided that REALTOR® membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one year or less. Failure to satisfy this requirement within 120 days of the date membership was granted will result in termination of provisional membership.

3. New Member Education Requirements

Within 120 days of the date membership is granted, Provisional REALTOR® members shall be required to complete an education program approved by the Board of Directors and comprised of not more than six (6) cumulative hours of instruction with respect to Board or Member practices that might result in a significant legal vulnerability and possible liability to the Board and its Members, such as violations of antitrust laws, agency laws, civil rights laws, or other similar public policies.

This requirement will be considered satisfied upon presentation of evidence that the member has completed an educational program conducted by this Association or any other recognized educational institution which, subject to the opinion of the Board of Directors, is an adequate substitute for the training programs conducted by the Association. Any member who fails to meet this requirement will be suspended until this requirement is fulfilled.

E. New Designated REALTOR® Education Requirements

Within 120 days of the date of membership is granted, Provisional Designated REALTOR® members shall be required to complete an education program approved by the Board of Directors and comprised of not more than six (6) cumulative hours of instruction with respect to brokerage management or Board of Member practices that might result in a significant legal vulnerability and possible liability to the Board and its Members, such as violations of antitrust laws, agency laws, civil rights laws, or other similar public policies. This requirement will be considered satisfied upon presentation of evidence that the member has completed an educational program conducted by this Association or any other recognized educational institution which, subject to the opinion of the Board of Directors, is an adequate substitute for the training programs conducted by the Association. Any member who fails to meet this requirement will be suspended until this requirement is fulfilled.

F. Continuing REALTOR® Member Requirements

1. Continuing Member Code of Ethics Training

Effective January 1, 2019, through December 31, 2021 and for successive three year periods thereafter, each REALTOR® member of the association (with the exception of REALTOR® members granted REALTOR® Emeritus status by the National Association) shall be required to complete ethics training of not less than two (2) hours and thirty (30) minutes of instructional time. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed a course of instruction conducted by this or another REALTOR® association, the State Association of REALTORS®, or the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, which meets the learning objectives and minimum criteria established by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® from time to time. REALTOR® members who have completed training as a requirement of membership in another association and REALTOR® members who have completed the New Member Code of Ethics Orientation during any three year cycle shall not be required to complete additional ethics training until a new three year cycle commences.

Failure to satisfy the required periodic ethics training shall be considered a violation of a membership duty. Failure to meet the requirement in any three year cycle will result in suspension of membership for the first two months (January and February) of the year following the end of any three year two (2)-year cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever occurs sooner. On March 1 of that year, the membership of a member who is still suspended as of that date will be automatically terminated.

2. Continuing Member Education Requirements

Effective January 1, 2022, through December 31, 2024 and for successive three year periods thereafter, each REALTOR® member of the association shall be required to complete an education program approved by the Board of Directors and comprised of not more than six (6) hours of cumulative instruction with respect to brokerage management or Board of Member practices that might result in a significant legal vulnerability and possible liability to the Board and its Members, such as violations of antitrust laws, agency laws, civil rights laws, or other similar public policies.

This requirement will be considered satisfied upon presentation of evidence that the member has completed an educational program conducted by this Association or any other recognized educational institution which, subject to the opinion of the Board of Directors, is an adequate substitute for the training programs conducted by the Association. Any member who fails to meet this requirement will be suspended until this requirement is fulfilled.

G. Status Changes

A REALTOR® Member whose employment status changes must provide written notification of such change to the CCIAOR within thirty (30) days.

A REALTOR® (non-principal) who becomes a principal in the brokerage with which he/she has been licensed or, alternatively, becomes a principal in a new brokerage which will be comprised of REALTOR® principals may be required to satisfy any previously unsatisfied membership requirements applicable to REALTOR® (principal) members but shall, during the period of transition from one status of membership to another, be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of a REALTOR® (principal). If the REALTOR® (non-principal) does not satisfy the requirements established in these Bylaws for the category of membership to which they have transferred within 30 days of the date they advised the association of their change in status, their new membership application will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the board of directors.

A REALTOR® who is transferring his/her license from one brokerage comprised of REALTOR® principals to another brokerage comprised of REALTOR® principals shall be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of membership during the period of transition. If the transfer is not completed within 30 days of the date the association is advised of the disaffiliation with the current brokerage, membership will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the board of directors. (The board of directors, at its discretion, may waive any qualifications which the applicant has already fulfilled in accordance with the association's Bylaws.)

Any application fee related to a change in membership status shall be reduced by an amount equal to any application fee previously paid by the applicant.

Dues shall be prorated from the first day of the month in which the member changes membership status and shall be based on the new membership status for the remainder of the year.

VI. Privileges and Obligation of Membership

A. Privileges

The privileges and obligations of members, in addition to those otherwise provided in these Bylaws, shall be specified in this Article.

B. Obligations

REALTOR® members, whether primary or secondary, in good standing are entitled to vote and to hold elective office in the association, and may use the terms REALTOR®. For purposes of this section, the term “good standing” means the member satisfies the “Obligations of REALTOR® Members”, is current with all financial and disciplinary obligations to the association and MLS, has completed any new member requirements, and complies with NAR’s trademark rules.

1. Suspension

If a REALTOR® Member is a sole proprietor in a brokerage, a partner in a partnership or an officer in a corporation and is suspended or expelled, the brokerage, partnership or corporation shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® in connection with its business during the period of suspension, or until readmission to REALTOR® Membership, or unless connection with the brokerage, partnership, or corporation is severed, or management control is relinquished, whichever may apply. The membership of all other principals, partners, or corporate officers shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension of the disciplined member, or until readmission of the disciplined member or unless connection of the disciplined member with the brokerage, partnership or corporation is severed, or unless the REALTOR® who is suspended or expelled removes himself/herself from any form or degree of management control of the brokerage for the term of the suspension or until readmission to membership, whichever may apply. Removal of an individual from any form or degree of management control must be certified to the CCIAOR by the member who is being suspended or expelled and by the individual who is assuming management control and the signatures of such certification must be notarized. In the event the suspended or expelled member is so certified to have relinquished all form or degree of management control of the brokerage, the membership of other partners, corporate officers, or other individuals affiliated with the brokerage shall not be affected, and the brokerage, partnership or corporation may continue to use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® in connection with its business during the period of suspension or until the former member is readmitted to membership in the CCIAOR. The foregoing is not intended to preclude a suspended or expelled member from functioning as an employee or independent contractor, providing no management control is exercised. Further the membership of REALTORS® other than principals who are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with the disciplined member shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension of the disciplined member or until readmission of the disciplined member, or unless connection of the disciplined member with the brokerage, partnership or corporation is severed, or management control is relinquished or unless the REALTOR® Member (non-principal) elects to sever his/her connection with the REALTOR® and affiliate with another REALTOR® Member in good standing in the CCIAOR, whichever may apply.

If a REALTOR® Member other than a sole proprietor in a brokerage, partner in a partnership, an officer of a corporation is suspended or expelled, the use of the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® by the brokerage, partnership or corporation shall not be affected.

2. Action Taken

In any action taken against a REALTOR® Member for suspension or expulsion, notice of such action shall be given to all REALTORS® employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such REALTOR® Member and they shall be advised that the provisions in these Bylaws shall apply.

Any REALTOR® Member of the CCIAOR may be disciplined by the CCIAOR Board of Directors for violations of the Code of Ethics or other duties of membership, after a hearing as described in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, provided that the discipline imposed is consistent with the discipline authorized by the Professional Standards Committee of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® as set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the National Association.

Resignations of members shall become effective when submitted in writing to the CCIAOR, provided, however, that if any member submitting the resignation is indebted to the CCIAOR for dues, fees, fines, or other assessments of the CCIAOR or any of its services, departments, divisions, or subsidiaries, the CCIAOR may condition the right of the resigning member to reapply for membership upon payment in full of all such monies owed.

If a member resigns from the CCIAOR or otherwise causes membership to terminate with an ethics complaint pending, the complaint shall be processed until the decision by the CCIAOR with respect to disposition of the complaint is final by the CCIAOR (if respondent does not hold membership in any other association) or by any other association in which the respondent continues to hold membership. If an ethics respondent resigns or otherwise causes membership in all Boards to terminate before an ethics complaint is filed alleging unethical conduct occurred while the respondent was a REALTOR®, the complaint, once filed, shall be processed until the decision of the CCIAOR with respect to disposition of the complaint is final. In any instance where an ethics hearing is held subsequent to an ethic respondent's resignation or membership termination, any discipline ratified by the Board of Directors shall be held in abeyance until such time as the respondent rejoins an association of REALTORS®.

If a member resigns or otherwise causes membership to terminate, the duty to submit to arbitration (or to mediation if required by the association) continues in effect even after membership lapses or is terminated, provided that the dispute arose while the former member was a REALTOR®.

C. Institute Affiliate Member.

Institute Affiliate Members shall have rights and privileges and be subject to obligations as prescribed by the CCIAOR Board of Directors consistent with the Constitution and Bylaws of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

D. Affiliate Members.

Affiliate Members shall have rights and privileges and be subject to obligations as prescribed by the CCIAOR Board of Directors.

E. Public Service Members.

Public Service Members shall have rights and privileges and be subject to obligations as prescribed by the CCIAOR Board of Directors.

F. Honorary Members.

Honorary Membership shall confer only the right to attend meetings and participate in discussions.

G. Student Members.

Student Members shall have rights and privileges and be subject to obligations as prescribed by the CCIAOR Board of Directors.

H. Certification of Roster

Designated REALTOR® Members of the CCIAOR, when requested, shall certify to the CCIAOR on a form provided by the CCIAOR, a complete listing of all individuals licensed or certified with the REALTOR®'s office and shall designate a primary Association/Board for each individual who holds membership.

Designated REALTORS® shall also identify any non-member licensees in the REALTOR®'s office(s) and if Designated REALTOR® dues have been paid to another Association/Board based on said non-member licensees, the Designated REALTOR® shall identify the Association/Board to which dues have been remitted.

These declarations shall be used for purposes of calculating dues under the NAR Bylaws. Designated REALTOR® Members shall also notify the CCIAOR of any additional individual(s) licensed or certified with the brokerage(s) within thirty (30) days of the date of affiliation or severance of the individual.

I. Conflict of Interest.

The CCIAOR has a conflict of interest policy which is detailed in the Policy Manual and is strictly enforced.

J. Harassment.

The CCIAOR has a harassment policy which is detailed in the Policy Manual and is strictly enforced.

VII. Professional Standards and Arbitration

A. Enforcement of the Code

The responsibility of the CCIAOR and of CCIAOR members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, and the arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto, shall be governed by the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, as amended from time to time, which is by this reference incorporated into these Bylaws, provided, however, that any provision deemed inconsistent with state law shall be deleted or amended to comply with state law.

B. Duties

It shall be the duty and responsibility of every REALTOR® member of this association to safeguard and promote the standards, interests, and welfare of the association and the real estate profession, and to protect against conduct that may cause a lack of public confidence in the real estate profession or in REALTORS®. REALTOR® members also must abide by governing documents and policies of the association, the State Association, and NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, as well as the Code of Ethics of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, including the duty to mediate and arbitrate controversies arising out of real estate transactions as specified by Article 17 of the Code of Ethics, and in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. Controversies shall first be submitted to mandatory mediation as a prerequisite to arbitration.

Every REALTOR® member shall maintain a high level of integrity and adhere to the association's membership criteria. Any violent act or threat of violence to person or property, hateful conduct, or acts of moral turpitude impacting the public shall not be tolerated and may be cause for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of membership.

C. Cooperative Professional Standards

The responsibility of CCIAOR and of CCIAOR members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, the arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto, shall be consistent with the cooperative professional standards enforcement agreement entered into by the CCIAOR, which by this reference is made a part of these Bylaws.

VIII. Use of the Terms Realtor® and Realtors®

A. By Members

Inclusion and retention of the Registered Collective Membership Mark REALTORS® in the name of the association shall be governed by the Constitution and Bylaws of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® as from time to time amended.

Use of the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® by members shall, at all times, be subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® and to the Rules and Regulations prescribed by the CCAIOR Board of Directors. The CCAIOR shall have the authority to control, jointly and in full cooperation with the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, use of the terms within its jurisdiction. Any misuse of the terms by members is a violation of a membership duty and may subject members to disciplinary action by the CCAIOR Board of Directors after a hearing as provided for in the CCAIOR Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

B. By Member's Business

REALTOR® Members of the CCAIOR shall have the privilege of using the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® in connection with their places of business within the state or a state contiguous thereto so long as they remain REALTOR® Members in good standing. No other class of members shall have this privilege.

C. By Principal Members

A REALTOR Member who is a principal of a real estate brokerage, partnership, trust or corporation may use the terms REALTOR and REALTORS only if all the principals of such brokerage, partnership, corporation or trustee in a trust who are actively engaged in the real estate profession within the state or a state contiguous thereto are REALTOR Members of the CCAIOR or Institute Affiliate Members.

1. Commercial Entities

In the case of a REALTOR® Member who is a principal of a real estate brokerage, partnership, trust or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, the right to use the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® shall be limited to office locations in which a principal, partner, trustee, corporate officer, or branch office manager of the brokerage, partnership, trust or corporation holds REALTOR® Membership. If a brokerage, partnership, trust or corporation operates additional places of business in which no principal, partner, trustee, corporate officer or branch office manager holds REALTOR® Membership, the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® may not be used in any reference to those additional places of business.

Institute Affiliate Members shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS®, or the imprint of the emblem seal of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

By reason of the CCAIOR's membership, each REALTOR® Member of the CCAIOR shall be entitled to membership in the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® and the Massachusetts Association of REALTORS® without further payment of dues. The CCAIOR shall continue as a member of the State and National Associations, unless by a majority vote of all of its REALTOR® Members, decision is made to withdraw, in which case the State and National Associations shall be notified at least one (1) month in advance of the date designated for the termination of such membership.

B. Exclusive Property Rights of NAR

The CCIAOR recognizes the exclusive property rights of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® in the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS®. The CCIAOR shall discontinue the use of the terms in any form in its name upon ceasing to be a member of the National Association, or upon a determination by the CCIAOR Board of Directors of the National Association that it has violated the conditions imposed upon the terms.

C. Adoption of NAR Code of Ethics

The CCIAOR adopts the Code of Ethics of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® and agrees to enforce the Code among its REALTOR® Members. The CCIAOR and all of its members agree to abide by the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations, and policies of the National Association and the Massachusetts Association of REALTORS®.

X. Dues and Assessments

A. Application Fee.

The CCIAOR Board of Directors may adopt an application fee for REALTOR® Membership in a reasonable amount, not exceeding three (3) times the amount of the annual dues for REALTOR® Membership, which shall be required to accompany each application for REALTOR® Membership and which shall become the property of the CCIAOR upon final approval of the application.

B. Dues.

The annual dues of members shall be as follows:

1. Designated REALTOR® Members.

The annual dues of each Designated REALTOR® Member shall be in such amount as established annually by the CCIAOR Board of Directors, plus an additional amount to be established annually by the CCIAOR Board of Directors multiplied by the number of real estate salespersons and licensed or certified appraisers who (1) are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors, or who are otherwise directly or indirectly licensed with such REALTOR® Member, and (2) are not REALTOR® Members of any Board in the state or a state contiguous thereto or Institute Affiliate Members of the CCIAOR. In calculating the dues payable to the CCIAOR by a Designated REALTOR® Member, non-member licensees as defined in (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not be included in the computation of dues if the Designated REALTOR® has paid dues based on said non-member licensees in another Board in the state or a state contiguous thereto, provided the Designated REALTOR® notifies the CCIAOR in writing of the identity of the Board to which dues have been remitted.

In the case of a Designated REALTOR® Member in a brokerage, partnership, trust or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, any assessments for non-member licensees shall be limited

The exemption for any licensee included on the certification form shall automatically be revoked upon the individual being engaged in real estate licensed activities (listing, selling, leasing, renting, managing, counseling, or appraising real property) other than referrals, and dues for the current fiscal year shall be payable.

Membership dues shall be prorated for any licensee included on a certification form submitted to the CCAIOR who during the same calendar year applies for REALTOR® Membership in the CCAIOR. When calculating votes, candidates who are running unopposed will assume office over candidates running opposed. The remaining positions shall be filled by candidates from different companies with the next highest vote total. Any vacancies shall be filled in accord with the provisions of the Bylaws.

Any directors who are required to vacate under this provision may remain in their position until the end of the pending year, at which time their position will be filled pursuant to these Bylaws.

4. Only One (1) Candidate

For each Officer and Director position for which there is only one (1) candidate, the election may be conducted as follows: The Leadership Development Committee may cast one (1) vote for all such candidates upon a motion approved under the voting procedures in effect. In such case, the next-ranking Officer will conduct the meeting. In order for the meeting to proceed, a quorum of members as well as two-thirds (2/3) of the petitioners must be present. A three-fourths (3/4) vote of members present and voting shall be required for removal from office.

XVIII. Multiple Listing Service

A. Authority.

The CCIAOR shall maintain for the use of its members a Multiple Listing Service (MLS) which shall be a lawful corporation of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, all the stock of which shall be owned by CCIAOR.

B. Purpose.

A Multiple Listing Service (MLS) is a means by which authorized Participants make blanket unilateral offers of compensation to other Participants (acting as subagents, buyer agents, or in other agency or non-agency capacities defined by law); by which cooperation among Participants is enhanced, by which information is accumulated and disseminated to enable authorized Participants to prepare appraisals, analyses, and other valuations of real property for bona fide clients and customers; by which Participants engaging in real estate appraisal contribute to common databases; and is a facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information so Participants may better serve their clients and the public. Entitlement to compensation is determined by the cooperating broker's performance as procuring cause of the sale (or lease).

C. Governing Documents.

The CCIAOR Board of Directors shall cause any Multiple Listing Service (MLS) established by it pursuant to this Article to conform its Corporate Charter, Bylaws, Rules, Regulations, Policies, Practices, and Procedures at all times to the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules, Regulations, and Policies of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

D. Participation.

Any REALTOR® of this or any other Board who is a principal, partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager acting on behalf of a principal, without further qualification, except as otherwise stipulated in these Bylaws, shall be eligible to participate in the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) upon agreeing in writing to conform to the Rules and Regulations thereof and to pay the costs incidental thereto. However, under no circumstances is any individual or brokerage, regardless of membership status, entitled to Multiple Listing Service (MLS) "membership" or "participation" unless they hold a current, valid real estate broker's license and offer or accept compensation to and from other Participants or are licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property. Use of information developed by or published by The CCIAOR's Multiple Listing Service (MLS) is strictly limited to the activities authorized under a Participant's licensure(s) or certification and unauthorized uses are prohibited. Further, none of the foregoing is intended to convey "participation" or "membership" or any right of access to information developed by or published by a Board Multiple Listing Service (MLS) where access to such information is prohibited by law.

The REALTOR® principal of any brokerage, partnership, corporation, or the branch office manager designated by said brokerage, partnership, or corporation as the Participant shall have all rights, benefits, and privileges of the MLS, and shall accept all obligations to the MLS for the Participant's brokerage, partnership, or corporation, and for compliance with the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the MLS by all persons affiliated with the Participant who utilize the MLS.

Mere possession of a broker's license is not sufficient to qualify for Multiple Listing Service (MLS) participation. Rather, the requirement that an individual or brokerage offers or accepts cooperation and compensation means that the Participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to list real property of the type listed on the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) and/or to accept offers of cooperation and compensation made by listing brokers or agents in the Multiple Listing Service (MLS). "Actively" means on a continual and ongoing basis during the operation of the Participant's real estate business. The "Actively" requirement is not intended to preclude Multiple Listing Service (MLS) participation by a Participant or potential Participant that operates a real estate business, on a part-time, seasonal, or similarly time-limited basis or that has its business interrupted by periods of relative inactivity occasioned by market conditions. Similarly, the requirement is not intended to deny Multiple Listing Service (MLS) participation to a Participant or potential Participant who has not achieved a minimum number of transactions despite good faith efforts. Nor is it intended to permit a Multiple Listing Service (MLS) to deny participation based on the level of service provided by the Participant or potential Participant as long as the level of service satisfies state law.

The key is that the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation with respect to properties of the type that are listed on the MLS in which participation is sought. This requirement does not permit a Multiple Listing Service (MLS) to deny participation to a Participant or potential Participant that operates a "Virtual Office Website" (VOW) (including a VOW that the Participant uses to refer customers to other Participants) if the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation. A Multiple Listing Service (MLS) may evaluate whether a Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to offer or accept cooperation and compensation only if the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) has a reasonable basis to believe that the Participant or potential Participant is in fact not doing so. The membership requirement shall be applied in a nondiscriminatory manner to all Participants and potential Participants. The MLS may charge participants and subscribers not holding primary or secondary membership in a Realtor® association that owns the MLS a different amount than charged to members of the association, provided that such charge is reasonably related to the actual costs of serving those members.

1. Subscribers

Subscribers (or users) of the MLS include non-principal brokers, sales associates, and licensed and certified appraisers affiliated with participants. Subscribers also include affiliated unlicensed administrative and clerical staff, personal assistants, and individuals seeking licensure or certification as real estate appraisers who are under the direct supervision of an MLS participant or the participant's licensed designee.

XIX. Notice

Unless otherwise provided by law, whenever any notice is required to be given to any member or Director of the Corporation under the provisions of these Bylaws or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.
