B. LEGAL REPRESENTATION

The CEO or his designee is the only authorized representative to engage the services of the legal counsel unless specifically authorized by the CEO or by the majority of the Board of Directors or if acting within the confines of another policy contained herewithin.

The legal counsel for the Association is the Ardito Law Group. Other counsel may be hired for contracted services as approved by the CEO or Board of Directors through the budget of the Association or through a motion of the Board of Directors.

C. CEO SUCCESSION PLAN

This establishes a plan should the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) position of the Cape Cod & Islands Association of REALTORS® become vacant or the Board of Directors has been notified of a pending vacancy in the position. There are three scenarios covered under this policy:

- Temporary Absence
- Unplanned Departure
- Planned Departure

This succession plan will guide the organization through the transition and gives the proper authority to the individuals mentioned herewithin to carry out this policy.

Temporary Absence: Temporary CEO Succession Plan

In the event of a temporary CEO absence either through temporary incapacitation or a leave of absence that is long enough that the Board of Directors deems the need to enact the Temporary CEO Succession Plan.

In the event of a Temporary Absence, the Chief Operating Officer (COO) will assume the role of the Interim Chief Executive Officer (Interim CEO) effective immediately.

If the COO is unable, unwilling, or the position is vacant, the MLS Director will be named Interim CEO. If the MLS Director is unable to serve in this capacity, then the Executive Committee shall meet or convene a conference call immediately and either name a staff member as the Interim CEO or hire a temporary consultant with executive experience to fulfill the role. The Executive Committee or any officer or director is not eligible to fill the role as Interim CEO.

Upon any action of the Executive Committee, the entire Board of Directors shall be immediately notified.

The Interim CEO shall ensure that the Association and MLS continues to operate with minimal disruption and that all organizational commitments previously made are adequately executed. The Interim CEO should have the full power the bylaws and policies of CCIAOR and its subsidiaries provide.

(See Appendix A-1: Temporary CEO Succession Plan Guidance)

Unplanned Departure: Emergency CEO Succession Plan

Circumstances that trigger implementation of the Emergency Succession Plan:

- Death of CEO;
- CEO becomes permanently incapacitated;
- CEO's employment ends and its effective date is not enough time to implement the Planned Departure Succession Plan.

In the event of an Unplanned Departure, the Chief Operating Officer (COO) will assume the role of Interim Chief Executive Officer (Interim CEO) effective immediately.

If the COO is unable, unwilling, or the position is vacant, the MLS Director will be named Interim CEO. If the MLS Director is unable to serve in this capacity, then the Executive Committee shall meet or convene a conference call immediately and either name a staff member as the Interim CEO or hire a temporary consultant with executive experience to fulfill the role. The Executive Committee or any officer or director is not eligible to fill the role as Interim CEO.

Upon any action of the Executive Committee, the entire Board of Directors shall be immediately notified.

The Interim CEO shall ensure that the Association and MLS continue to operate with minimal disruption and that all organizational commitments previously made are adequately executed. The Interim CEO should have the full power the bylaws and policies of CCIAOR and its subsidiaries provide.

(See Appendix A-2: Emergency CEO Succession Plan Guidance)

Planned Departure: Planned Departure CEO Succession Plan

Circumstances that trigger the implementation of this Planned Departure Succession Plan:

- CEO announces retirement or departure at a date the Planned Departure Succession Plan can be implemented;
- CEO's employment ends and its effective date is enough time to implement the Planned Departure Succession Plan.

In the event one of the circumstances occurs that triggers the Planned Departure Succession Plan, the Executive Committee should immediately convene.

If timeline provides a gap between when the CEO leaves and a new one is in place, the Executive Committee will confirm the COO as Interim CEO effective a particular date or name another individual as Interim CEO. The Executive Committee cannot leave the position vacant or name the Executive Committee as the Interim CEO.

Upon any action of the Executive Committee, the entire Board of Directors shall be immediately notified.

(See Appendix A-3: Planned Departure CEO Succession Plan Guidance)

D. SPONSORSHIP OF STATE & NATIONAL REALTOR® AFFILIATED INSTALLATIONS

CCIAOR will sponsor the installation of any CCIAOR member elected as the Chief Elected Officer of a state or national REALTOR® affiliated organization. The sponsorship amount will be at the approval of the CCIAOR Board of Directors.

E. DBA NAMES

The Association has been granted use of Doing Business As (DBA) names by the National Association of REALTORS®. A DBA is a name for a business (or association) other than the name that appears in the articles of incorporation.

The following DBA names have been approved for use by the Association from NAR:

- Cape Cod REALTORS®
- Martha's Vineyard REALTORS®
- Nantucket REALTORS®

The approved DBAs can only be used interchangeably with the "Cape Cod & Islands Association of REALTORS®" and connote the Association as a whole and not a subset of its members. Use of the DBAs should only be used to convey the Association's official position or presence as an organization.

III. VOLUNTEER LEADERSHIP

A. VOLUNTEER LEADERSHIP AGREEMENT

As a condition of volunteering with the Association, all volunteers must agree to abide by the volunteer policies contained herewithin.

(See Appendix B-1: Volunteer Leadership Agreement)

B. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Conflicts of Interest

The Association and its volunteer leaders are dedicated to serving the interests of the Association's constituency in the most honorable and ethical manner possible. Among the Association's duties is the responsibility to provide assurance to its constituencies that debates, decision making, and all governance at the Association are conducted in an objective and bias-free context. Among the duties of the volunteer leaders of the Association is a duty of loyalty—to place the best interests of the Association uppermost when acting on the Association's behalf. This duty of loyalty, or “fiduciary” duty, encompasses the obligation to avoid or disclose any “other interests” that could dilute, diminish, or divide a leader's unqualified loyalty and complete commitment to the Association. Where such interests exist or even appear to exist, they are “conflicts of interest” that the Association is responsible to manage in order to ensure reasonably bias-free governance.

Summary of the Policy

The Association's policy is to require that volunteer leaders disclose “other interests” as defined in this policy at least once each year or more frequently if “other interests” arise. Then the governing board, or delegated representatives of the governing board, must decide what if anything to do in reaction to disclosures of “other interest” according to the Association's procedures for doing so. In most cases it will be decided that the proper corrective measure is disclosure of the “other interests” to the governing board or other governance body of the Association. But in some cases, the volunteer leader might be asked to “recuse”—refrain from participating in debate or resolution of matters where the volunteer leader has “other interests.” In rare cases the volunteer leader might be asked to resign from the position on the board or elsewhere in the governance structure of the Association.

“Other Interests”

1. To what volunteer leaders does this policy apply?

The governing board has determined that the policy applies to officers, directors, senior executives and committee/group members of the Association.

2. What “other interests” are to be disclosed?

Disclosure is expected of these “other interests”:

- a) Ownership, employment, or volunteer or agency interest or involvement in a commercial entity or nonprofit organization that competes with the Association;
- b) Ownership, employment, or volunteer or agency interest or involvement in a commercial entity or nonprofit organization that is, or seeks to be, a vendor of products or services to the Association; or
- c) Position as spokesperson, consultant, employee, or agent for another commercial or nonprofit organization that advances opposing or adverse public policy positions from those of the Association.

Note: The “Association” includes the Association’s subsidiaries and affiliates.

Note also: The volunteer leader should disclose these “other interests” personally for the employer or company, and for close business associates and family members.

3. When and how is disclosure to be made?

Disclosure is to be made at least annually when requested by the governing board, and after that at any time throughout the year when an “other interest” arises or becomes known that was not disclosed at the time of, or has significantly changed since, the annual disclosure. Disclosure should always be in writing. Disclosure forms are provided for that purpose. Volunteer leaders should feel free to provide additional information as appropriate.

4. What information is to be disclosed about “other interests”?

The volunteer leader should provide sufficient information about any “other interest” so as to permit an evaluation of what effect the “other interest” might have on the leader’s participation in the Association’s governance.

5. What about confidential information on “other interests”?

Any confidential information should be clearly marked as such on the volunteer leader’s disclosure. The Association will endeavor to keep the information confidential. But if a requirement for confidentiality precludes the governing board of the Association from fairly evaluating the disclosure, the Board may respond accordingly in its recommendation regarding corrective measures.

Corrective Measures

It is the Association’s prerogative, not the disclosing volunteer leader’s, to make determinations regarding corrective measures with respect to “other interests.” The governing board or its delegated representatives will do so. Among the corrective measures available to be recommended are these:

1. Disclosure to the governance body. In most cases, it is expected that the possibility of subjectivity or bias will be sufficiently offset by disclosing the “other interest” to the entire governance body of which the disclosing volunteer leader is a member. That governance body will be expected to take the individual’s “other interest” into consideration when discussions, debates, or decisions occur in the governance body. The Association, its governing board, and the volunteer leader will all have fully discharged their duties.
2. Recusal. In some instances, it may be determined that the avoidance of conflicts of interest, or even the mere appearance of conflicts of interest, will dictate that the disclosing individual should avoid discussions, debates, and decision making on subjects related to the disclosure. The volunteer leader will remain a member of the governance body affected but will withdraw from portions of meetings or activities appropriately.
3. Resignation. There could be situations, expected to be rare, in which the volunteer leader’s “other interest” is so extensive or pervasive that, in the view of the Association’s governing board or its representatives, the leader’s involvement in discussions, debates, or decision making in the pertinent governing body on any subject will be adversely affected. In that case the leader will be asked to resign. If resignation is not forthcoming, the governing board will decide on alternatives consistent with the Association’s Bylaws and governing state law.

Procedures

The appropriate steps in implementing this policy are these:

1. Annual disclosure. Officers, directors and senior executives of the Association will be asked to complete a disclosure form annually. Forms should be submitted at other times as well if “other interests” arise or become known. Committee/group members of the Association are only required to submit the attached disclosure form if and when they have “other interests” to disclose.

(See Appendix B-1: Disclosure of Other Interests)

2. Review, evaluation, and recommendation. The Executive Committee of the Association will review any disclosure forms where “other interests” are disclosed. The volunteer leader may be asked to provide additional information as a result of this review. If this reviewing body determines that no action is required, then none will be taken. If the body determines that disclosure to the full governing body on which the volunteer leader sits is the appropriate corrective measure, this will be undertaken with notice to the volunteer leader. If other corrective measures are recommended, the matter will come before the governing board.

3. Governing board. The governing board makes the final determination of the appropriate corrective action to be recommended to the volunteer leader and any subsequent action or procedures that may become expedient.

Any questions about the Association's policy or procedures should be raised with the Board of Directors or Legal Counsel of the Association.

C. CONFIDENTIALITY

All volunteers agree to respect the confidentiality of the committees, task forces and Boards of Directors of the Association. They will not reveal discussions, deliberations, or information outside the scope of your authority. If you have a question as to whether information is confidential, you will consult the CEO or assigned staff.

D. ANTITRUST

Policy

It is the undeviating policy of the Association to comply strictly with all federal, state, and applicable international trade regulations, antitrust, and competition laws. Any activities of the Association-related actions of its officers, directors, committee chairs, REALTOR® Members, Participants, Subscribers, or staff (Parties) that violate these regulations and laws are detrimental to the interests of the Association and are unequivocally contrary to the Association policy. By following the guidelines within this policy, the Association serves to prevent anti-competitive conduct of the previously described Parties; but it also aims to reduce even the appearance of anti-competitive conduct.

Implementation

Implementation of the antitrust compliance policy of the Association includes, but is not limited to, the following:

A. Meetings. Association membership meetings, and those of the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee, and other committees, are to be conducted pursuant to agendas distributed in advance to attendees; discussions should be limited to agenda items; there should be no substantive discussions of the Association matters other than at official meetings; minutes shall be distributed to attendees promptly.

All Parties who receive a notice and agenda should review it in advance to identify any agenda item that might raise concerns under this policy and ask the staff or the presiding member to refer any such items to general counsel for review prior to the meeting. If a discussion is, or is likely to become, inconsistent with this policy, suspend the discussion until general counsel can review the discussion under the antitrust laws; minutes should note the suspension.

B. Prohibited Subjects. All Association activities or discussions shall be avoided that might be construed as tending to (1) raise, lower, or stabilize prices; (2) regulate production or services; (3) allocate markets, customers, or clients; (4) encourage boycotts; (5) foster unfair trade practices; (6) assist in monopolization; or (7) in any way violate federal, state, or applicable international trade regulations and antitrust laws.

C. Authorization. No officer, director, or member of the Association shall make any representation in public or in private, orally or in writing, that states, or appears to state, an official policy or position of the Association without specific authorization to do so.

D. Obligation to Withdraw and Report. Anyone observing a violation of the Prohibited Subjects should immediately and firmly object and stop the discussion, immediately and conspicuously withdraw from the group if discussion continues and report any conduct or discussions that may violate this policy to general counsel. Mere silence is not enough.

E. General Counsel. General Counsel is available to consult whenever potential antitrust issues arise. Parties must never consult with each other regarding any of these issues unless they form a joint venture or other collaborative effort under the advice of general counsel.

F. Sanctions. Association members, officers, directors, or employees who participate in conduct that the Board of Directors determines to be contrary to the Association antitrust compliance policy are subject to disciplinary measures up to, and including, termination as per the CCIAOR & CCIMLS Bylaws.

E. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The Association desires to retain all intellectual property rights in all projects in which volunteers are engaged. All volunteers agree to irrevocably assign and transfer to the Association any and all copyright rights, and other intellectual property rights, and all actions and causes of actions related to the foregoing, and all damages, profits, and other recoveries related thereto, which may be created, had, developed, acquired or contributed during the course of the volunteer engagement. Volunteers agree and acknowledge that the Association will own all intellectual property rights associated with all works created for the Association during their volunteer engagement and that they shall not challenge or take any action inconsistent with such rights.

F. FREEDOM FROM HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION

The Association is committed to a work environment free from all forms of discrimination and unlawful harassment, including sexual harassment. This policy applies to the working relationships between the Association's employees and applicants, members, customers, vendors, and others with whom contact is necessary to perform Association business.

This policy also applies to all work-related settings and activities, whether inside or outside the workplace and includes member sites, business trips and business-related social events. The Association's property (telephones/cell phones, copy machines, facsimile machines, computers and computer applications such as e-mail and Internet access) may not be used to engage in conduct that violates this policy. The Association's policy against harassment covers employees and other individuals who have a relationship with the company (including members, outside contractors, vendors, etc.)

The Association will not tolerate any form of unlawful harassment or discrimination in the workplace. For purposes of this policy, the term harassment includes, but is not limited to, threatening, belittling, obscene or offensive language, jokes, or other verbal or physical conduct about a person's age, ancestry, disability, gender, gender identity, genetic information, military/veteran status, national origin, pregnancy, race or color, religion, or sexual orientation. Discrimination means different treatment of employees based on one of the above-listed protected classes.

While harassment or discrimination based on any characteristic identified above is prohibited, sexual harassment requires particular attention. Sexual harassment is behavior directed towards any employee based on gender or sex, and can include sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or verbal and physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment, or submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting an individual; or such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

The Association encourages employees and members to come forward with any complaints of harassment or discrimination and/or to cooperate in any investigation of harassment or discrimination. The Association prohibits retaliation against an employee or member for filing a complaint of harassment or discrimination, or for cooperating in the investigation of such a complaint. Any retaliation will not be tolerated.

(See Appendix C for the Harassment Complaint Procedure and Appendix D for the Harassment Complaint Investigation and Confidentiality Statement.)

G. WHISTLEBLOWER

The Association requires directors, officers and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. Employees and members of the Association must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

REPORTING RESPONSIBILITY

This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns internally so that the Association can address and correct inappropriate conduct and actions. It is the responsibility of all board members, officers, employees and volunteers to report concerns about ethics violations or suspected violations of law or regulations that govern the Association's operations.

NO RETALIATION

It is contrary to the values of the Association for anyone to retaliate against any board member, officer, employee or volunteer who in good faith reports an ethics violation, or a suspected violation of law, such as a complaint of discrimination, or suspected fraud, or suspected violation of any regulation governing the operations of the Association. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

COMPLIANCE OFFICER

The Chief Executive Officer of the Association or his or her designee shall serve as the officer responsible for ensuring compliance with this Whistleblower Policy (the "Compliance Officer"). The Compliance Officer is responsible for ensuring that all complaints about unethical or illegal conduct are investigated and resolved. The Compliance Officer will advise the Executive Committee of all complaints and their resolution.

REPORTING PROCEDURE

The Association has an open-door policy and suggests that employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with their supervisor. If you are not comfortable speaking with your supervisor or you are not satisfied with your supervisor's response, you are encouraged to speak with the CEO, President or the Association's Legal Counsel. Supervisors and managers are required to report complaints or concerns about suspected ethical and legal violations in writing to the Association's Compliance Officer, who has the responsibility to investigate all reported complaints. Employees with concerns or complaints may also submit their concerns in writing directly to their supervisor, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Association's Legal Counsel.

ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING MATTERS

The Association's Compliance Officer shall notify the Finance Committee of any concerns or complaint regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing and work with the committee until the matter is resolved.

ACTING IN GOOD FAITH

Anyone filing a written complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Violations or suspected violations may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

HANDLING OF REPORTED VIOLATIONS

The Association's Compliance Officer will notify the person who submitted a complaint and acknowledge receipt of the reported violation or suspected violation. All reports will be promptly investigated, and appropriate corrective action will be taken if warranted by the investigation.

H. TRAVEL & EXPENSES

From time to time, volunteers of the Association will be required to attend meetings away from the office. When required, the Association will incur all reasonable costs of such travel, provided the employee follows the travel expense policies. Should a family member elect to travel to any national meetings, his/her personal expenses will be the responsibility of the volunteer member, the volunteer's first and foremost duty is to attend the meetings for the purpose stipulated by the Chief Executive Officer. All volunteer travel is approved annually through the budget or approved directly by the appropriate Board of Directors.

Immediately following the required travel, expenses must be reported to the Chief Executive Officer or his/her designee for reimbursement approval. All travel expenses must be itemized and should include receipts for all expenses.

Any volunteer leadership who travels on behalf of the Association should consult with the CEO/or assigned staff prior to the trip to get input as to the itinerary and the meetings needed to be attended. After the travel and at the next available Board of Directors meeting, the volunteer leadership shall provide a report to the Board of Directors as to updates from the event attended. In addition, if requested, the volunteer leadership shall provide the CEO a written report of meetings attended and relevant updates from the travel for distribution to the membership within a week of returning from the trip.

The following guidelines are necessary for the proper preparation and submission of expense reports by volunteers of the Association:

- AIR TRAVEL: No paid air travel may be scheduled without prior approval of the CEO and only coach class tickets will be assumed by the Association.
- AUTO TRAVEL: Travel by personal auto on business, except for travel to the Association offices or meetings within the jurisdiction of the Association, will be reimbursed for actual miles traveled at current IRS approved rates. Expenses such as parking fees, tolls, etc., will be reimbursed if the proper receipts are submitted and approved by the CEO.
- OVERNIGHT TRIPS: Expenses for lodging, meals, tips, and other related expenses will be paid by the Association with proper receipts and approval. No alcohol will be reimbursed by the Association. Hotel expenses will only be incurred for those traveling more than two hours off Cape, unless allowed for separately in this manual. The CEO can waive this stipulation if the travel is required for consecutive days.
- HOTEL EXPENSE: The CEO/or assigned staff shall determine the hotel accommodations to minimize the cost to the Association. When traveling on business, you are representing the Association and it may not always be appropriate for spouse and/or children or friend(s) to travel with you. You should consult the CEO to determine if it is appropriate to have family members accompany you on any trip.
- PER DIEM REIMBURSABLE EXPENSES: The Association will reimburse up to the maximum per diem expense that is determined by IRS rates. This will include the cost of meals. Receipts are required for all expenditures over $5.
- CANCELLATIONS: The Association will not assume cancellation fees. If a volunteer has already committed to a trip, but is unwilling or unable to attend, the volunteer will assume all fees pre-paid for the trip. The CEO can waive this in the event of extreme and unforeseen circumstances.

I. ISLAND BOARD OF DIRECTOR TRAVEL

The Association will pay all reasonable transportation costs for the Association Board of Directors to travel from the Islands to the location for meetings on Cape Cod. The Association will reimburse the cost of a plane flight or boat trip (with car). If needed, The Association will also pay reasonable transportation cost of a car rental for the day of travel. Expenses such as parking fees, tolls, etc., will be reimbursed if the proper receipts are submitted and approved by the CEO or his/her designee. Parking fees will only be paid for the day of the meeting.

If the Association requires an Island BOD member to be on Cape Cod for two consecutive days, schedules a meeting too early for planned island transportation or weather delays a return to the Island, the Association will cover a hotel stay. Island Board of Director members are required to work with the CEO/or assigned staff to determine the budget for their travel for the year and the CEO may make alterations to this policy within the budget amount.

Note that all active licensees, including licensed assistants, are included in the Designated REALTOR® Dues Formula. The only exception to the NAR Designated REALTOR® Dues Formula is for agents who are Licensed for Referral Only Companies and qualified Mortgage Loan Originators. Please refer to the Designated REALTOR® Dues Formula FAQ for more information.

Subscriber Fee Waivers

MLS provides participants the option of a no-cost waiver of MLS fees, dues, and charges for any licensee or licensed or certified appraiser in a participating office who can demonstrate (i) subscription to a different MLS where the principal broker for the office also participates or (ii) that they work exclusively with rentals. MLS requires Participants to sign a certification for nonuse of MLS services, which includes penalties and termination of the waiver if violated. Normally, under Section 6.2 of the Rules and Regulations, any per-subscriber fee is calculated based on each salesperson and licensed or certified appraiser affiliated with a participating office. The effect of fee waiver is that the number of subscribers in a participating office for purposes of any recurring per-subscriber fees paid by a participant under Section 6.2 shall be reduced by the number of licensees and certified appraisers who are subject to waiver under Section 6.6 of the Rules and Regulations.
